Dear Mrs. Smith,

My name is Alexander Chi, and I am glad for the opportunity to apply for the open position at your company. After reviewing the job description, it is clear that you are looking for a viable candidate to handle the responsibilities associated with this role. Based on my skills, work ethic, and experience, I think I would be a perfect candidate for this position.

I am a highly motivated high school student with a 4.0 GPA who has consistently been recognized for academic excellence, including being named Student of the Month. Throughout my academic career, I have developed 2 year experience with technical and organizational skills, including experience with HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, as well as works in both Windows and macOS systems. In addition, my already built work hours such as assisting in a kindergarten classroom and supporting school events has reflected my responsibility, attention to detail, and ability to work effectively with others.

Whether working on academic, extracurricular, or volunteer projects, I bring needed skills to every task. I am confident that these qualities, along with my strong work ethic, would allow me to contribute positively to your organization. Here's my github profile to show some of my works <https://github.com/alexchi114>

After reviewing my qualifications, I hope you will agree that I am a capable and dedicated candidate. I look forward to the opportunity to further discuss how my skills can benefit your company. Please feel free to contact me at 1-559-404-9898 or by email at Alexanderchi559@gmail.com to arrange a convenient meeting time.

Thank you for your consideration, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Respectfully,
Alexander Chi
